

2020 has been one of those years where we've all just, well, spent a lot of time inside, at home, doing our part to slow the pandemic while using words that had never before been used for anything, like unprecedented, furloughed, social distancing and Carol Baskin. Maybe that's why no one will be surprised to hear we've all spent time on the sofa daydreaming about the good old days where we could travel to far-flung pockets of paradise, far from the pile of dirty dishes that still occupy the sink.

Well, we have the solution.

Okay, so North Norfolk may not count as a "far-flung" paradise, but it's very much a paradise, one with endless beaches of golden sand, fine-dining, Michelin-starred restaurants, fancy cocktails, sunset walks as the sunsets on the water and, okay, pine trees instead of palm trees. Of course, what makes a trip to paradise so special is the dreamy abode you get to call home-away-from-home for the foreseeable.

That's where we have you covered because we do laid-back luxury retreats like nowhere else. From big and beautiful houses to cute little love nests to the most magical boltholes by the beach, we've got everything you need for a 6-person getaway you'll never forget -- including some new ones.

Here's a look at the 5 New For November luxury retreats you're going to start daydreaming about:

AUF YhJJYk Burnham Market

If you're imagining a quaint little bolthole in the beating heart of Burnham Market, you're only half right. It is indeed in the heart of Burnham, but "bolthole" kind of undersells this place because it's nothing shy of an elegantly modern, minimalist, sweet and incredibly chic hideaway that's got everything you could want and need on its doorstep; high-end eateries, top-drawer fashion stores, fresh fish shops and cute coffee stops. That's if you ever decide to leave this place, and we wouldn't blame you if you didn't. Not with five luxurious bedrooms, pinch-yourself artwork, log burner, enclosed garden, spa-like bathrooms and everything else you could possibly need to put your feet up and relax in style.

Thornham

With gorgeous yet enormous glass doors that open-up almost-completely onto the back garden, this luxury retreat has blurred the line between inside and out, and it's been done in a way that compliments every season little old blighty has to offer. Revel in the warm weather as you stroll from in and out (topping up your rosé) or embrace the autumn vibes as you sit in front of the log burner, eating marshmallows as you stare up at the stars. It's also a dinner host's dream, with an open-plan kitchen, dining table for 6, a piano tucked up against the wall and yet more doors ready to be pulled back and the lover's swing enjoyed. And when you're ready to get up and explore (the following afternoon), you couldn't be better positioned with views over the distant sand dunes and so many tasty dining options on your doorstep -- from award-winning fish and chips to delicious dinner at The Orange Tree -- your favourite word is about to become "mmmmm".

Sedgeford

Field View is not just a home away from home in the middle of Norfolk's coastal countryside; it is an eco-home away from home that will give you all the feels imaginable, starting with its flint-brick facade and incredible countryside views. Basically, imagine retreating to that little village cottage in The Holiday, and then multiply that feeling by approximately 500, add the most easy-on-the-eyes decor, a garden perfect for stargazing, 4 immaculate bedrooms (including one with an antique 'Princess & The Pea' style oak bed), a bathtub with a view, a pub you can stroll to and a plethora of beaches that are just a short drive away. That's what staying in this amazing retreat is like, and it is absolutely perfect for everyone; from families looking for a beach escape to couple's wanting a romantic getaway. Oh and you can bring your furry friend along for the adventure too.

Burnham Market

If you're looking to decamp with your favourite people (and dogs), this stunning house has you covered. Made for the current magic number of 6, it has 3 massive en-suite bedrooms, an enclosed garden, open-living space and a cosy corner for those evenings best spent in front of the log burner and endless bottles of something red. And because it's nestled in the heart of Burnham Market (the crown jewel of North Norfolk) you're a pebbles throw from everything you dreamed of. Dune-filled beaches, pine-lined walking trails, independent boutique shops, upmarket restaurants, pub-pubs with roaring log fires, Norfolk's dreamiest seaside towns and all the stately homes you could ever hope to say "cheeeese" in front of. Oh and, if you wanted to take a few little trinkets home with you, our sister shop Barefoot Living is packed full of interior delights that will make sure you never forget your trip.
